AHI-Homes Admission Begins

Editorial - T. Adnan Ahmed

Assalamu alaikum wa rahmatullahi wa barakatuhu,

Alhamdulillah, as we reflect on another fulfilling year at Anjuman-e-Himayath-e-Islam, we are truly grateful for how our community continues to grow - in knowledge, service, and unity.

This edition brings together many moments of joy and achievement. From the vibrant Integrated Annual Day to the exciting AHI Carnival, every event reminded us of the talent and teamwork that exists across our institutions. Our students have performed, competed, created, and learned in inspiring ways.

We praise Allah and are thankful for the strong academic results, the growth of the Girls' and Boys' Homes, and the continued efforts of the Anjuman Counselling Unit, which is quietly shaping healthier minds across our system.

The admissions and recruitment have shown how much AHI has expanded this year. With more than 100 new children joining our Homes and 49 new staff members appointed, our responsibility has grown. We must now ensure we continue to nurture, educate, and support every life entrusted to us.

We are also blessed to have hosted respected visitors and honoured senior members who have served with commitment. Their journey reminds us that this work is not just about today, but also about the legacy we build for the future.

Let us reflect on the words of Allah (s.w.t) in the Quran:

"Co-operate with one another in righteousness and piety, and do not co-operate in sin and transgression. Have fear of Allah. Allah is stern in punishment." (Surah Al-Ma'idah : Ayah 2)

This is what Anjuman truly stands for - working together to uplift and serve. May Allah continue to guide us and accept our efforts.

Jazak Allah Khair.

It is neither their meat nor their blood that reaches Allah, but it is your piety that reaches Him.

Surah Al-Hajj - (22:37)

Wonders of the World

Islamic Calligraphy: Art in every letter

Islamic calligraphy has a rich and profound history, playing a central role in the cultural and spiritual life of the Islamic world.

The foundation of Islamic calligraphy was laid down by the creative genius of three great calligraphers from Baghdad; the Vizier Ibn Muqla (886–940) of the Abbasid court, Ibn al-Bawwab, and Yakut al-Musta'simi of Amasya (d. 1298).

Ibn Muqla established the principles of calligraphy. To this day, Islamic calligraphers use his theory of proportion based on three sets of measurements: the dot, alif, and circle. The relationship of all letters of a script is determined by the width of the rhomboid dot produced by the pen nib.

Islamic calligraphy began in the early centuries of Islam, around the 7th century, with the codification of the Quran. The earliest form of writing, Kufic script, emerged during this period. It was characterized by angular, geometric shapes and was used in the transcription of Quranic manuscripts.

As Islam expanded across regions, the art of calligraphy flourished. During the Abbasid Caliphate (750-1258), calligraphy became more refined and varied.

The development of Naskh script, which was more cursive and readable, made it the dominant script for copying the Quran. Thuluth script, known for its elegance and grandeur, was also developed during this period and used for architectural inscriptions and religious texts.

Today, Islamic calligraphy continues to be a significant cultural and spiritual practice. It is celebrated not only in traditional manuscripts and mosque decorations but also in modern art and design, where artists blend historical techniques with contemporary aesthetics.

Ladies Masjid

260 girls (Class VI - Class XII) absolutely enjoyed the tranquility & serenity of the ladies masjid during December holidays, a first time visit for most of them. Etiquettes of Masjid was addressed by Farida Majid after which they participated in the jummah congregation prayers. Samosa treat was given before departing.

Eid Day

Fridays are truly magical, witnessing many devoted musallis coming in from near & far to enjoy the serenity of the ladies masjid.

"Identity of a Muslim" was addressed in Tamil & English by Sr. Sithi Lareefa on 26th February 2025.

Sr. Fatima Muzaffar spoke on the blessings & virtues of serving & caring for parents followed by a soulful Dua which was well attended.

Excellent arrangements were made for Taraveeh Namaz in the holy month of Ramadan 2025. Outdoor pandal was erected to accommodate the spill over of musallis & the kiddy's creche'. Both inner halls & entrance corridor too were packed with musallis.

Many musallis were seen praying only 8 rakats and leaving, posing a challenge to quickly fill empty spaces.

Bulky big bags, musallah's & little children below age 12 yrs were not allowed inside the main masjid halls due to space constraint.

For the first time, the entire LPH car park area was fully carpeted & roof covered in preparation for Eid ul Fitr prayers.

Extra air coolers & giant pedestal fans & speakers were placed at strategic locations facilitating comfort & ease in prayers for the musallis.

The gravelled entrance outside the masjid main gates & every inch of the masjid premises were occupied by humongous crowds.

Accommodating the ever increasing Nikaahs is posing a bit of a challenge as sometimes the etiquette of the masjid is not adhered to by a few guests.

All praises & thanks to our Mighty Creator & to the AHI management for their support & guidance, enabling perfect arrangements.

Alhamdulillah!

Boys' Home

Alhamdulillah, the Boys Home has grown.

With AMHSS school having moved to a new building, the area vacated by them was modified and absorbed into the Boys Home. This has given us a new multipurpose hall, another dedicated library for the senior boys, a computer lab, and additional study rooms for the tutors.

Our impetus on holistic nurture and care remains constant. The Quran Recitation Program progressed in tandem with bayaans by esteemed scholars. The boys impressed during the annual Makhtab and the quiz conducted by The Afaf Way. The number of tutors was increased to six, with the teachers, wardens, and tutors working as a tightly integrated unit.

The Afaf Way EPL S3 Quiz - Awards Ceremony

NEET and JEE coaching, and participation in sports and art continued. Three of our boys were selected in the RSP contingent for the State Republic Day parade, while many others went on to compete in other district and state level in sports.

A new full-time counselor was appointed.

The fun trips continued with visits to Elliots Beach, The VGP Universal Kingdom, and even to the museum theatre for an exciting pantomime.

VGP Trip

Iftar Party at Boys Home

The Anjuman Carnival was a day of ultimate fun and treats for children, staff, and members alike.

Nutritional supplements were given for boys who were observed to be below their ideal height.

The Boys Home got a new RO Plant.

Another significant milestone was the constitution of the Anjuman Alumni Association – Boys Home. The new association organized career guidance for the senior boys.

Anjuman Alumni Association Inauguration

The Holy month of Ramadhan was observed with piety. A grand iftar was hosted by the Boys Home Committee for the boys and other illustrious guests.

The academic year concluded with the final exams and an intimate farewell for our Class XII graduating boys.

The Prophet (saws) said: The upper hand is better than the lower hand" [Muslim]. A giving (spending) hand is definitely better than the receiving hand (the lower).

Girls' Home

The academic year 2024–2025 was filled with meaningful activities, academic progress, and inspiring support at the Anjuman Girls' Home. The year was a testament to growth, compassion, and community spirit.

Academic and Awareness Initiatives

On 2nd November 2025, Dr. Shakir Hussain (IRS) delivered an insightful session on SSC and TNPSC examinations, enlightening Class XI and XII students about career opportunities in public service.

A 'Growth Mindset' workshop was scheduled for wardens aiming to empower them with resilience and self-belief.

Co-Curricular Achievements

The girls showcased their talents across various platforms. Primary students won multiple prizes and a rolling shield in inter-school events. DACAL students received awards for a drawing competition.

Visitors and Mentorship

The home had the privilege of hosting several dignitaries and well-wishers, notably, Mr. Rafeeq Jeelani, Chairman of Kothari Ltd and Mrs. Seema Ahmed Ali who took Class IV students for a beach outing, both of them inspiring the girls with their words and actions.

An honour to share in the joy and spirit of Eid

Festivals and Celebrations

The holy month of Ramadan was marked with spiritual and community-focused events with a grand Iftar party and Qatamul Quran program. All the Class XII students received Qurans as a farewell gift. Mashkura Thadey sponsored gifts for Quran competition participants.

Our Honorary Treasurer and committee member Mrs. Asma Asif Baig, joined in the Eid celebration.

Infrastructure and Projects

A solar heater was installed in November 2025. In April a long-awaited Annexe Expansion Project was initiated under the leadership of Chairperson Ms. Zubeida Asgar Ali Dhala. This development marks a new phase in the Home's growth.

Final Note

The Anjuman Girls' Home continues to be a nurturing space for academic excellence, moral growth, and holistic development. The tireless efforts and the vibrant spirit of committee members make each year a memorable chapter in their journey towards a better future.

Lime Light - (AHI Carnival)

The highly anticipated AHI Carnival held on 8th February 2025, was a resounding success with endless excitement. It was an unforgettable experience for the students, teachers, members and their families. The Carnival Committee, ably helmed by Mr. Nazar Mohamed and Mrs. Shahnaz Gulrez, worked tirelessly to ensure that the event would be spectacular. The administration staff too worked hard to co-ordinate.

Inauguration by Mrs. Shariffa A. Azeez

It was inaugurated by Mrs. Shariffa A. Azeez, the Correspondent of Crescent School along with President, Secretary, Treasurer and distinguished members & guests.

The thrilling bull ride

Starting off with a colourful release of balloons, the carnival was a spectacular treat for everyone. It was a Child's Wonderland with many thrilling rides such as merry go round, train, bouncing castle and mechanical pony. The teenagers were ecstatic with games such as Foosball, Hammer, Plinko, Hoopla and many more. The adventurous dared to sit on the thrilling mechanical bull to get their adrenaline rush.

The stage shows were universally captivating. Families enjoyed the stupendous acts like the Chinese Lion act, Illusion Act, Juggling, Tall man and acrobats on the brightly lit up stage.

The carnival was a foodie's delight offering exotic Persian, Chinese, Italian & Indian delicacies Yummy short bites, dreamy desserts, milk shakes & ice-creams kept the kids on cloud nine. The members paid generously for their children's food & games coupons. Alhamdulillah.

The inclusion of a shopping arcade with stalls of gift items, casual and party wear & trinkets kept the shopaholics busy.

Food Stalls

Game Stalls

A partition with an array of 20 food stalls separated the gents and ladies sections. The stage, however was visible to both sides. A carpeted area was allotted for ladies to perform their namaz in peace.

Oxymed Hospital had included the Plank Challenge to test the strength of the participants and gave away prizes to the healthiest 3 winners.

The Laser show brightened up the night and the carnival ended with sparkling party poppers and thunderous cheering – A fitting grand finale to a most spectacular carnival, which was truly unforgettable. The children left the venue, clutching their precious gifts while the night air resonated with their contented laughter. The carnival welcomed over 8000 attendees.

Alhamdulillah!

Swirl 2 Club Performances

Swirl 2 – A celebration of talent and tradition

On 1st February, DACAL celebrated Swirl 2 in a grand and memorable manner. The event was honoured by the presence of our esteemed chief guest, Mr. Balabharathi, a respected journalist and author from Barathi Publications.

- ◆ Movement Therapy Club - captivated the audience with traditional performances, including Silambam, Poi Kaal Kuthirai, and Kummi Paatu, reflecting the rhythmic beauty of Tamil folk arts and their therapeutic value.
- ◆ Public Speaking Club - Students took the stage to express their thoughts on powerful themes such as Bharathiyar, Jhansi Rani, and "If I Become a Chief Minister", along with engaging debates and proverb interpretations, fostering critical thinking and eloquence.
- ◆ Qirath Club - Bridging languages and cultures, this club focused on translating Arabic words into Tamil, encouraging linguistic exploration and cultural appreciation.

◆ Drama Club - delivered a compelling performance titled "Porkalam – Antha Kaalam – Intha Kaalam", weaving together stories from the past, present and leaving the audience inspired.

◆ Heritage Club - focussed about tree planting, agricultural richness, and the fertility of the soil, reminding us of our deep-rooted connection to nature.

Swirl 2 was a proud reminder of the talent, tradition, and teamwork that thrive at DACAL.

Center Stage - The Integrated Annual Day Program

Shadow play - AMHSS

The Integrated Annual Day Program organised after a long hiatus, by the newly constituted AHI Cultural Committee, was a creative extravaganza featuring spectacular performances by the students of all the educational units of AHI, namely AHI Academy, Al-Hira, DACAL and Anjuman Primary & Higher Secondary School. The committee left no stone unturned in putting up a state-of-the-art open-air theatre, within the AHI campus, for the event which was well-attended and appreciated by over 3000 students and parents. The dedicated efforts of the teachers and the extraordinary talents of the students was evident in the mesmerising performances, the unique program ideas, and elaborate costumes, which left the audience spellbound and asking for more. The event was inaugurated by the President, Janab Mecca Rafeeqe Sahib and spanned over four hours with a break for tea and maghrib salah.

Emphasising the need to keep our oceans clean

The students of DACAL presented two powerful theme-based movement performances. The boys' group delivered a dynamic act raising awareness about traffic signals and road safety. The girls' group gave a moving performance emphasising the importance of keeping our oceans clean and reminding us of our duty to protect the environment. About 170 students took to the stage, each one contributing to a truly synchronised and memorable session which was met with roaring applause from the audience.

A Space-Time Odyssey

Anjuman Primary School's "A Space-Time Odyssey", was a vibrant fusion of science, culture, and values. As students embodied celestial objects, they celebrated India's diversity, highlighted men's responsibility and championed women's empowerment. The majestic appearance of UY Scuti served as a humbling reminder of our small place in the universe. The finale highlighting ten timeless values, left a lasting impression, encouraging empathy, kindness, and purpose and resonating deeply with the audience -

Not one to be left behind, the AHI Academy for Women put up their tiny tots of Al Hikmah weekend school who stole the show with a scintillating performance on Colours in Arabic.

Anjuman Middle and High school students presented innovative acts based on the theme of "Time travel". They began with a soulful recital of Asma ul Husna followed by a captivating shadow performance on Cinderella. The time jumped from the powerful act of Kannagi's fight for justice to the lively Russian puppet show during World War II. The narrative peaked with the intense scene from Macbeth, concluding with an AI driven futuristic Round Table Conference highlighting the world leaders who drive global change with unity, wisdom, and strength. The Anjuman students shone brightly in their stellar performances, navigating the past, present and future.

Al-Hira's theme on "Holistic harmony - cultivating mindful excellence through essential life skills," successfully celebrated students' talents. Their session began with a spiritual recitation. Diverse cultural performances followed, conveying social messages. Kindergarteners shared heartwarming tributes to parents, while a high school student delivered a TED Talk on volunteering. Primary students performed a Tamil skit on plastic pollution, and another group presented an English skit on knowledge vs wisdom. Middle schoolers enacted a powerful mime on mobile addiction, and high schoolers performed a street play addressing social media hazards. The program effectively showcased student achievements and strengthened community bonds.

Anjuman Counselling Unit (ACU)

ACU – “Creating healthier and happier minds”

At the heart of Anjuman’s compassion lies the Anjuman Counselling Unit (ACU) – a dynamic initiative weaving empathy, insight, and support across the institution. In the last six months, under the inspiring leadership of Ms. Mecca Shabina Banu, ACU has grown into a full-time, structured counselling unit actively collaborating with all Anjuman units.

Parental Exit interviews - Boys Home

Interactive Mediated sessions - Girls Home

Counselling in Homes: “A little empathy goes a long way”

ACU plays a transformative role in Boys and Girls Homes, conducting awareness sessions focused on emotional regulation, personal growth, and value-based living. Wardens are guided in compassionate care giving and trauma-informed care, strengthening respectful inmate-warden relationships. In the Boys Home, exit interviews with parents offer critical insights into student withdrawals and serve as platforms to reaffirm the value of education.

Counselling in DACAL: “Right people will hear you even if you are not talking”

ACU offers parental counselling in DACAL, creating safe spaces for parents of special children to share their journeys. Structured exit interviews here have become reflective tools that help institutional strategies, ensuring parents feel supported and heard.

Family centered parental therapy

Together we lead - ACU Team

Counselling based on school set-ups: “Children long to be understood than to be lectured”

In AHI schools, ACU supports students through group sessions on motivation, anxiety management, and learning strategies. In Al-Hira CBSE School, engaging group activities explore topics like peer influence, social media, and parental bonding - encouraging self-reflection and ethical awareness.

As we move forward, ACU has evolved into the emotional backbone of Anjuman’s children. ACU pledges to expand its reach, deepen its impact, continue walking beside every individual under Anjuman’s care and stay true to the noble legacy of Anjuman.

Great Islamic Minds

Sheikh Yusuf Motala

India's Gift to Islamic Scholarship in the West

Sheikh Yusuf Motala (1946–2019) was a towering Islamic scholar whose life bridged the traditional madrasas of India and the growing Muslim diaspora in the West. Born in Surat, Gujarat, he was nurtured in India's rich Deobandi tradition, studying at the famed Darul Uloom Deoband under legendary scholars like Sheikh Muhammad Zakariyya Kandhlawi. This rigorous training in Quran, Hadith and spirituality, shaped his lifelong mission: preserving classical Islamic learning while adapting it to new contexts.

Sheikh Yusuf Motala

In the 1960s, Sheikh Yusuf moved to the UK, where he recognized the challenges faced by Muslim migrants-lacking access to structured religious education. Drawing on the Deobandi model, he founded Darul Uloom Bury in 1975, Europe's first traditional Islamic seminary. The institution mirrored India's madrasa system, blending rigorous scholarship with spiritual discipline (Tazkiyah), and produced generations of scholars who served communities worldwide.

Despite his relocation, Sheikh Yusuf maintained deep ties with India, visiting frequently to support Islamic education and guide students. His work exemplified how India's scholarly traditions could thrive abroad, ensuring that migrants retained their religious identity while engaging with the modern world.

Sheikh Yusuf's legacy endures through his students and institutions, which continue to promote authentic Islamic learning rooted in Indian scholarly heritage. His life remains a testament to the global impact of India's Islamic intellectual tradition - proving that timeless knowledge, when carried with sincerity, can illuminate hearts across continents.

Academy for Women

Empowering women through Education and Community

AHI Academy for Women is delighted to share the highlights of activities and achievements from Nov 2024 to April 2025. This period has been filled with exciting events, workshops, and milestones that showcase the Academy's commitment to academic excellence and community building.

Tibbe Nabawi

Hijama, or cupping therapy, is a traditional healing method endorsed by Prophet Muhammad (peace be upon him).

In Tibbe Nabawi, Hijama is considered a powerful remedy for various ailments, including:

- ◆ Fever and infections
- ◆ Back pain and muscle spasms
- ◆ Migraines and headaches
- ◆ Digestive issues

The Prophet (peace be upon him) said, "Indeed, the best remedy you have is hijama..."

Hijama involves creating suction on the skin to:

- ◆ Increase blood flow
- ◆ Reduce inflammation
- ◆ Remove toxins

How Hijama Works:

Increases Blood Flow: Suction cups increase oxygen delivery to tissues.

Reduces Inflammation: Removes toxins and inflammatory fluids.

Relaxes Muscles: Releases tension and pain.

Boosts Immunity: Stimulates white blood cell production.

Benefits of Hijama:

- ◆ Relieves chronic pain (back, neck, joints)
- ◆ Treats migraines and headaches
- ◆ Improves digestion and reduces bloating
- ◆ Enhances skin health and reduces acne
- ◆ Lowers blood pressure and stress

Types of Hijama:

Wet Cupping (with blood removal)

Dry Cupping (no blood removal)

Fire Cupping (using flame to create suction)
